

Curriculum Vitae (C.V)

Personal Data

Name & Surname: Ehmeid Khalifa
Date of Birth: 1980
Nationality: Libyan
Email: ehmeid@yahoo.com
Mobile Tel: + 218 928312645 - + 218 913915209

Qualifications

- ❖ 2010 - 2011; Birmingham City University, Faculty of Health, UK, (Master of Science (MSc) in Health and Social Care with Distinction Award Classification).
- ❖ 2009 - 2010; Birmingham City University, Faculty of Health, UK, (Postgraduate Diploma (PGDip) in Health and Social Care).
- ❖ 2008; Professional Membership - Registration in the Libyan General Medical Council as a Senior House Officer under № 3600 (Tripoli).
- ❖ 1999 - 2007; University of Tripoli, Faculty of Medicine, Tripoli, Libya, MBBS (Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery) (The official language of teaching in the Faculty of Medicine is just by English Language).
- ❖ 1996 - 1999; 7th April Secondary School (Scientific Discipline), Libya (with Excellent Grade & Average 86.5%).

Related Work Employment

❖ Full Time Position

- 2015 - Up to now; Lecturer in the Faculty of Medicine/ University of Tripoli in Community & Family Medicine Dept.

Responsibilities: Lecture planning, preparation and research. Teach 4th year medical students in a variety settings from small group tutorials to large lectures. The lectures are about Health Education, communications skills with Patients and infectious diseases (Tuberculosis & HIV). In addition to, set and mark the assignments. (The official language of teaching in the Faculty of Medicine is just by English Language).

- 2016 - 2019; Director of Administration in the Dispensary of University of Tripoli. In addition to my position as an assistant lecturer. I was assigned by the president of University.

Responsibilities: There are group of doctors, pharmacists, nurses and employees and my responsibility was to organise and distribute the tasks between them.

- 2008 - 2015; National Centre for Diseases Control; Tripoli, Libya.

I worked firstly as a general physician (GP) in Tuberculosis (TB) Unit, and then became a specialist of TB in the same Unit after I had MSc degree.

Responsibilities: listening to the patients of tuberculosis, diagnosing and treating their symptoms. In addition to decide the right course of action for the patients (could include hospital referral for specialized treatment).

Note: My position was reserved for me from 2009 to 2012 due to my study in UK.

❖ Part Time Position

- 15th to 28th August 2021; as a facilitator in Training Course in Sabha in collaboration with WHO (the course was about TB drug resistant for group of medical doctors in the south region of Libya).

- 1st of October 2020 to 31st of January 2021; as a consultant in Covid-19 Emergency Response Centre (CERC) in Tripoli.

Responsibilities: CERC is a call centre offer a free line (1448) where we could receive phone calls from people in order to detect, trace, and provide information to suspected COVID-19 patients in Libya.

- 2007 - Up to now; in translation - as a collaborator with many Translation Offices in Tripoli.

Responsibilities: Translate English medical reports and scientific researches from English to Arabic and vice versa.

Education and Courses in UK

- 2011 (17th May); conference held by Birmingham City University, UK.

It was an intensive day about; Equity and Excellence: Liberating the NHS the Way Forward.

- 2011 (Thursday 10th February); (Post Graduate Centre, City Hospital, Birmingham) conference under the Supervision of Birmingham City University, UK.

The title of the conference was an intensive day about; Equity and Excellence: Liberating the NHS (National Health Service) the Way Forward. The content was deemed to be relevant and current for the development needs of managers in health and social care.

- 2011; (Diagnostic Radiography and Medical Ultrasound Department) - Birmingham City University, Birmingham, UK.

It was related to the MSc's modules: Imaging Technology in Professional Contexts, which held in the clinical department of the University.

- 2010 (3rd, 4th and 5th March); Birmingham & Midland Institute; in cooperation with Birmingham City University, Birmingham, UK.

It was an intensive course in the principles and practice of tuberculosis management and control in the UK for Health Care Professionals.

- 2010; Selly-Oak Hospital (Infectious Department) - Birmingham City University, Birmingham, UK.

It was related to the MSc's module: Clinical Imaging in the Management of Tuberculosis and related Diseases.

Education and Courses in Libya

- 2013 (09th-13th June); Intensive Workshop was held by Libyan National Centre for Diseases Control in collaboration with WHO, WR Office for Libya and The Global Drug Facility and Management Sciences for Health; Tripoli, Libya.

It was about Managing Medicines and Pharmaceutical Supplies for Tuberculosis.

- 2013 (26th-30th May); Intensive Workshop was held by Libyan National Centre for Diseases Control; Tripoli, Libya (about TB diagnosis and Treatment).

- 2008 (19th-29th October); Training Intensive Course was held by National Centre for Diseases Control; Tripoli, Libya.

It was an intensive course about TB management for about two weeks.

Additional Information

❖ English Language

Fluent written and spoken English; where the system of study in the medical faculty in Libya by English, beside to the master study in UK and the following courses:

- 25th January to 04th July 2012; ESOL (Speaking and Listening Level 1) - City & Guilds of London Institute Certificate – the study was conducted in South Birmingham College – Birmingham/ UK.

It was a full-time course of study for about 6 months with average 22 hours a week.

Note: I started this course after I finished the MSc degree directly, aiming to obtain on high levels of English Language.

- 19th April to 25th June 2010; IELTS Preparation – Brasshouse Language Centre – Birmingham/ UK.

It was a part-time course with average 8 hours a week of study at IELTS Level.

- 16th November 2009 to 22th January 2010; Pre-sessional Course for International Students - Birmingham City University; with average attendance 93%.

It was an intensive English Course with average 22 hours a week for two and a half months.

❖ Computer Knowledge

- Arabic & English Touch Typing in Word.
- Experienced user of Microsoft Products such as; (Word, Excel, Power Point, & Outlook).
- Experienced user of SPSS software (Statistical Package for the Social Sciences).
- Perfect user of computer programs and very keen user of the Internet. Ability to use social media and mobile platforms.

Interest/ Hobbies

- Reading (magazine, journals & internet).
- Drawing, walking & travelling.
- Watching TV.

References available upon request